ADVERTISING

Why Choose Mango Advertising?

We have one mission: To generate demand for your product or service. Sound over-simplified? Maybe, but, maybe not. It's easy to find advertising that's flashy but lacks strategy, or, conversely, a campaign that demonstrates solid strategy that is weakened by creativity and branding.

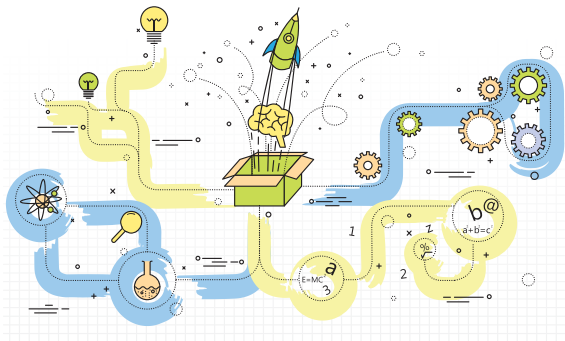

But, a campaign that doesn't have everything will never generate the kind of demand your business needs and ... deserves. You deserve a firm that takes the time to learn about you, your industry and your customers.

Of course, we, too, are enamored by witty headlines and eye-catching design; in fact, we strive for it. But, ensuring that every component of a good campaign is represented is what you can expect from Mango Advertising.

Company Profile :

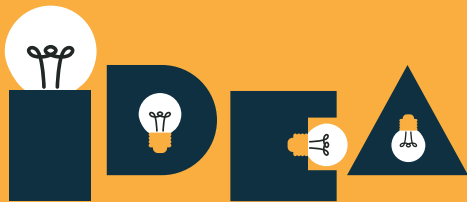

Mango Advertising is an advertising agency providing full scale marketing and advertising services. Founded in 2013, we have consistently garnered successful outcomes for clients through award winning creative and aggressive marketing strategies.

Our Strength is supportive employees and their dedication in works.

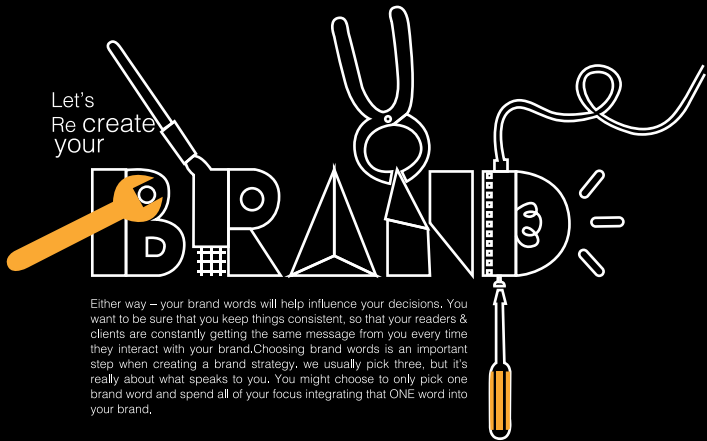

A Creative Flavour That Suits You...

Whether you require strategic brand management to capture the essence of your company or an exciting transformation of your existing brand, we have the people, skills and passion to support you. What's more we can provide you with sparkling marketing materials to support and promote your new look or simply present your established one in a new way.

We believe in difference. Because it makes a difference. If you surprise people then they'll sit up. If you speak a different language to everyone else then they'll listen. If you craft your message with love and originality then that message will land harder. If you give people something useful that makes their lives a little bit better then they'll thank you. And if you get all of this right, well, that's how brands are built. Everything we do is born out of the pursuit of difference. We fill our building with people who are different. We like to work with people who are different.

Either way – your brand words will help influence your decisions. You want to be sure that you keep things consistent, so that your readers & clients are constantly getting the same message from you every time they interact with your brand. Choosing brand words is an important step when creating a brand strategy. we usually pick three, but it's really about what speaks to you. You might choose to only pick one brand word and spend all of your focus integrating that ONE word into your brand, Creative Professionals... Happiest Customers..!

Trendy designs, Inspirational concepts, Over a decade of experience are our assets. Our main purpose is to help our clients to make their brands into great one. We provide creative thoughts, brand management, design and fitting services to support your business transformation. We Know what you need or what you want and we make sure that you get the final output as an outstanding one.

We create the unfair ideas that give our clients an unfair advantage. Sometimes they're great big ideas that transform entire organizations. Sometimes they're nimble little ideas that hijack a conversation. Unfair ideas let us do more with less. They're contagious. They're talked about. One day, ideas like these may be commonplace, but today, in our clients' ceaselessly competitive marketing environments, they're uniquely, utterly and wonderfully unfair.

There are no rules here—we're trying to accomplish something.

We believe that everyone wants to create something. To believe in themselves. To work outside of their habits. To collaborate. To keep learning. To find inspiration. To make people care. Our growing team is looking for these individuals. Individuals who want to do great things and who want to accomplish something.

It's simple, if that sounds like you, then take a look at our current openings below.
